HOME ECONOMICS CLASS

GIVES DEMONSTRATION

The home economics class was visited by Miss Lucille Higginbotham, Miss home supervisor of Bulloch county last Friday. Miss Higginbotham gave the class a demonstration of mattress making. The class completed the work on the mattress which will be used for the first aid room cot.

The sewing class has made beautiful curtains for the lunch room, the sewing room and the home economics kitchen at school.

CLASS OFFICERS ELECTED

At a meeting of the entire junior class held recently, the class officers were elected. Those selected for these coveted places are: Robert Lanier, president; Betty Jean Cope, vice-president; Dot Remington, secretary; and Zach Smith, treasurer.

BACK AFTER ILLNESS

The mild commotion in the halls and class rooms Monday morning in the grades is evidence of the return of Kenneth Cope, a classmate and friend of our hero, who has been away for his recovery from an operation for appendicitis and his return to school.

We anxiously await the return of Virginia Strickland, who also has had an appendicitis operation.

FACULTY STUDY GROUP

DOT REMINGTON

The regular study group meeting of the city schools was held in the lunch room Tuesday afternoon. The meeting was called to order and the minutes read. The program of the first regular meeting consisted of a survey of what is actually being done in the grades by each teacher. A better co-ordination between elementary and high school grades is earnestly desired by Superintendent Sherman, and to attain this goal he feels that the whole field of class room work should be familiar to all teachers in the system.

Delightful refreshments were served preceding the meeting.

Misses Mattie Lively and Nan Huckle and Mrs. J. O. Johnson and Mrs. Deal acted as hostesses for the occasion.

TO CHOOSE CONTESTANTS

SCHOOL OF THE AIR

On next Friday afternoon at 3:30 the preliminary contest for school of the air representatives will be held in the high school auditorium. The winners in piano will play in the school of the air contest against a representative from each school district in the state.

Senior News

The seniors have been very busy with their work, and are also busy with their trip this spring. We have been selling popcorn, doughnuts and candy, and are looking forward to their trip this spring.

We have made a poster in our excitement for the trip, and have put it on the bulletin board so everyone can see it. We have drawn up by-laws for our trip, and are looking forward to our trip this spring.
